"Our furniture is made with love so fall in love with it"

Kevin Hellemans

Our RASIKE seats combine design with solid seat quality and comfort of the highest standard. The passion and craftsmanship in producing our seats are passed down from generation to generation. Years of experience, passion of the craft and continuous innovation have led to the most efficient and high quality production.

In order to guarantee this high quality, all of our superb fabrics and leathers are tested in house for lightfastness, pilling and wearability.

By maintaining this close attention to detail, we create beautiful bespoke furniture with longevity built-in.
